

Chelsea Reed, Mayor of Palm Beach Gardens, is an award-winning leader and lifelong community advocate with decades of experience in business development and philanthropy. When not serving in her hometown, she chairs several impactful boards focused on transportation, sustainability, and equity. Mayor Reed is the 2022 Public Sector Leadership Excellence Award Winner, the 2022 Complete Streets Champion for Palm Beach County, the 2023 Distinguished Alumni Award recipient for the Benjamin School, and was 1 of 20 nationally chosen elected officials for the 2021-22 Smart Growth America Champions Institute

She is Chair of the Governing Board as well as the Disadvantaged Local Coordinating Board for the Palm Beach Transportation Planning Agency. She is Chair of the Smart & Connected Regional Task Force for Palm Beach North Chamber and 2nd Vice President of the Board of Directors for Palm Beach County League of Cities. Chelsea established the PB North Sustainability Subcommittee, chairs the Women's Foundation Network of Elected Women, and serves on the Benjamin School Alumni Council, Friends of MacArthur Beach State Park Board of Directors, Advisory Board to Resource Depot, Treasure Coast Regional Planning Council and Florida League of Cities, and graduated Leadership Palm Beach County Class of 2020.

Mayor Reed attended The Benjamin School, Florida Atlantic University, and University of Florida, and has certifications in Inclusive and Ethical Leadership and DEI. She is a dedicated mentor, advocate, volunteer, wife, parent, and friend. She and her husband have raised their two children and built their careers in Palm Beach County.