Celebrating Flagler Station: New Affordable Apartment Community

The City of West Palm Beach is thrilled to announce the successful completion of Flagler Station, an exceptional affordable apartment community developed by Housing Trust Group (HTG). This remarkable project, valued at $33 million, marks a significant milestone as the first new affordable apartment community to grace our downtown in the past 30 years.

The City of West Palm Beach Community Redevelopment Agency held the Annual BBQ, Brews & Blues Festival on July 1, 2023 to support the Historic Northwest District. We are excited to share that the event hit record numbers of over 2,000 attendees, all supporting local merchants and vendors while learning about the current CRA projects in the district.

Development Services: Keeping The City's Growth in Check and On Track

No other City department has more to do with our growth than the Development Services Department. Handling a long list of requirements and jobs, Development Services makes sure the City's ever-changing landscape is carefully planned to meet current and future needs.
